Bank of Botetourt Partners with Lord Botetourt High School through New Scoreboard Installation

May 23, 2024, Daleville, VA - Committed to supporting its local communities, Bank of Botetourt is proud to announce its partnership with Lord Botetourt High School in Daleville, Virginia for the installation of a new, state-of-the-art scoreboard for the school's basketball gymnasium. The Bank's Mortgage Division, Virginia Mountain Mortgage, also sponsored a scoreboard located in the school's main lower gym. As a community partner, the Bank believes in investing in its local communities and the importance of supporting youth programs and educational institutions. The Bank and its employees look forward to this new enhanced experience for players and spectators alike in the upcoming school year and sports season.

"As a community bank, we are proud to support initiatives that bring our fellow community members together and support the schools that are educating our youth. Through the installation of this new scoreboard, we hope to foster a continued feeling of pride from those who attend Lord Botetourt High School and those who visit for years to come," shared Bank President and COO, Michelle R. Austin.
