Bank of Botetourt Establishes the Hayth High School Graduation Grant, a Bank-Wide Scholarship Opportunity for Employees with High School Seniors

May 29th, 2024, Buchanan, VA – Bank of Botetourt is pleased to share the establishment of the Hayth High School Graduation Grant, an internal scholarship opportunity. This new initiative is designed to support bank employees who have high school seniors graduating this year. The Bank is proud to be awarding grants totaling $5,000 to the graduating class of 2024. Recipients of this grant include high school seniors from Cave Spring High School, James River High School, Lord Botetourt High School, Smith Mount Christian Academy, Waynesboro High School, and William Byrd High School.

G. Lyn Hayth, CEO & Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors shared, “I am deeply honored to have this high school grant named after me. Education has always been a cornerstone of my life and career, as it is a stepping stone towards financial success and stability. This grant will help the Bank support its employees and celebrate their graduate’s milestone during this important time while their children pursue higher education.”
